

Patrick-Ward

A marriage license was issued today to James H. Patrick of this city and Miss Irma Ward, of Keytesville, and friends of the happy pair state that the ceremony uniting them in marriage will be performed tonight at the home of the bride.

The young couple have been sweethearts for some time and news of their approaching marriage will occasion no surprise among their many friends.

The bride is a pretty and refined young lady, who is well known in this city. She will make an ideal helpmeet for the happy young man of her choice. Mr. Patrick is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Patrick of South Fifth street. He is a gentleman of exemplary habits, honest and industrious and in every way worthy of the young lady who is to become his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick will reside in Moberly.—Moberly Monitor.

Miss Irma Ward, eldest unmarried daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ward was united in wedlock Sunday afternoon to James H. Patrick, a fine appearing young man of Moberly, Rev. A. F. Haynes saying the necessary words in near record time. The train on which Mr. Patrick arrived was late and the one on which he departed with his bride due in a few minutes after his arrival, making it necessary for the minister to talk fast.

Mrs. Irma Patrick was among our handsome girls; sprightly to a high degree and possessed of good domestic qualities and is a great loss to her parents. The Monitor gives the only account we have had of the groom. The wedding was at the home of Mrs. O. G. Dameron and present, the brides parents, Mrs. O. G. Dameron, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Richardson, Mrs. H. M. Sigloch and Miss Katherine, Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Haynes and the hostess, Mrs. O. G. Dameron.

The Courier extends congratulations and best wishes.

Two Kinds Sauce

Van Lee Hood of San Diego, Calif., husband of the woman who eloped with Raymond Dobbs, a negro, went to Salt Lake City and had a conference with the chief police, his wife and the coon, after which he took his wife and went back home.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascares tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

There were forty five copies of "Current Events" ordered this quarter. This is quite a decrease as there were seventy-five ordered last quarter.

The Senator Calls a Bluff

We haven't noticed any comebacks to Senator Stone's speech in Washington Tuesday. The Senator, besides being from Missouri, and therefore possessing a keen desire to be shown, is chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate. It was in his official capacity that he called the hot-headed preparedness bluff.

Senator Stone told the Senate he wanted it understood that he was for reasonable preparedness, and that he is as unalterably opposed to the peace-at-any-price apostle as he is to the paid or misguided alarmist. But the Senator added that he challenged a proof that there is as much danger of war in this county today as there was before the outbreak of European hostilities.

The close of the war will bring greater likelihood for lasting peace with European nations than has existed at any time during the last half century, concluded Senator Stone.

And there isn't a preparedness howler to challenge the chairman of the committee.

The great nations of Europe are broke; their women and children are crying for food and clothing; their forces along the front are tired and helpless; their men at home are callow youths or aged or crippled survivors. Their treasures are depleted, their industries paralyzed. They have called upon this country not only for charity but for commerce. Without us they would be a sorry lot.

And yet the windjammers of the country drew a picture of a vast hostile army ready to march into our land, of vast phantom fleets riding the waves just inside Sandy Hook, awaiting the opportune moment to level New York City.

All this is pictured. All this is dressed up in the togger of fiction. There isn't one fact in the whole botheaded argument save this:

That the men who make ammunition and the men who deal in "war bride" stocks are looking to the day when an end to the European struggle will mean bankruptcy for them.

Trail the vast preparedness advocate to his lair and you will not land far from the executive offices of war stock gamblers or munitions makers. St. Louis Times.

A Sumner Suicide

W. O. B. Smart, who for many years has been a prominent and highly respected citizen of this place, committed suicide about two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by shooting himself in the forehead with a .32-calibre pistol.

For some time his eyesight has been gradually failing, and to a number of friends of late he has expressed the conviction that he would soon become totally blind, and thereby a burden to himself and family. It is supposed that he brooded over the matter until his mind became unhinged and he formed the determination to end it all by taking his own life.

Last Sunday he borrowed a pistol from his brother-in-law Geo. W. Berry stating that he wanted it to shoot some dogs that had been prowling around his place of nights. He kept the weapon concealed and none of the family knew he had it.

Shortly after dinner he kissed his wife and told her he was going up town for a while. A short time afterward his wife was out in the yard and through the partly open door of the water closet she observed a pool of fresh blood. Upon opening the door she discovered the dead body of her husband with a bullet hole in his forehead and a pistol lying at his side. She ran to the telephone and summoned aid and in a short time help was at hand and he was carried into the house, but the spark of life had fled before the body was discovered.

Coroner Tatum came up from Brunswick Wednesday morning and held an inquest. The verdict was that deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound, self-inflicted and with suicidal intent.

The funeral services were conducted Thursday at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church by his pastor, Rev. Trotter, after which the remains were taken in charge by his brethren of the Masonic fraternity and buried with the beautiful and impressive ceremonies of that order, conducted by District Deputy Grand Master H. R. Mason of Westville, at the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

His bereft wife and children have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

County Court Here

Salisbury enjoyed the honor of having County Court opened here Tuesday afternoon, something that has not occurred outside the county capitol before. While the meeting was not a formal sitting of court, Sheriff Hurt formally opened the session which was merely a consultation of the Court with Prosecuting Attorney McKittrick preliminary to the regular meeting next week. We trust that the Judges will so honor us again.—Salisbury Democrat.

The mountain went to Mahomet. Does this mean the start for another court room, etc. & C. or merely a sort of campaign sitting or star chamber proceeding? What was the reason for not having a clerk; if not the duly elected clerk of the County Court, then a special to record and make public its proceedings and write all thing proper to be written?

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Has Used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for 20 Years.

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my household for the past twenty years. I began giving it to my children when they were small. As a quick relief for croup, whooping cough, and ordinary colds, it has no equal. Being free from opium and other harmful drugs, I never felt afraid to give it to the children. I have recommended it to a large number of friends and neighbors, who have used it and speak highly of it," writes Mrs. Mary Minke, Shortsville, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Announcement.

I have secured the exclusive agency of the Edes Robe Tanning Co. for Keytesville, and hereafter will represent no other tanning company.

The Edes being the originators and leaders in the custom tanning industry proved to me that I could best serve my customers by taking their agency. I have made arrangements that enable me to give you lower prices on custom tanning and manufacturing than you can secure any place else. If you bring me a horse or cow hide, I can now get you a robe lined with green plush, size 60 x 72, and containing about 30 square feet, for only $8.75. I find that other custom made robes called 60 x 72 cost from $9.50 to $11.00, and contain only about 28 square feet or less.

Another distinctive feature that makes me feel fortunate in securing this agency is the fact that Edes robes and coats are guaranteed for life. I will be glad to show you a fac-simile of this guarantee.

The Edes Safety Tan overcomes the natural brittleness of the hair on horse hides, not entirely, but to remarkable extent. Horse hide robes and coats tanned by Edes wear almost as long as cow hides. Every hide is positively disinfected.

On many articles I can save you one half—a cap for 95c that other tanners charge you $2.40 for—a large muskrat muff for 3.95 that other tanners charge $9.00 for—and I could mention a hundred other bargains in ladies' furs, rugs, mittens, etc.

Whenever you have hides or skins for tanning, don't fail to bring them to me, for I will get you better goods at lower prices.
